

Portfolio Objective & Strategy

Socially Responsible Investing (SRI) is an investment strategy which incorporates environmental, social, and governance (ESG) factors into the investment process. The portfolio manager will invest in companies that encourage corporate practices that promote stewardship, consumer protection, human rights, and diversity. These areas are sometimes summarized under the heading is ESG issues: environment, social justice, and corporate governance. The portfolio manager will avoid investing in companies involved in promoting alcohol, tobacco, gambling, or in the defense industry.

Fees for the PIM Program include Advisory services, performance measurement, transaction costs, custody services and trading. The fees do not cover charges and expenses of any mutual funds that may be purchased within the program and customary brokerage charges and expenses of any mutual funds that may be purchased within the program and customary brokerage charges apply to non-program assets. Fees are based on the assets in the account and are assessed quarterly. There is a minimum fee of $250 per calendar quarter to maintain this type of account. Advisory accounts are not designed for excessively traded or inactive accounts, and may not be suitable for all investors. During periods of lower trading activity, your costs might be lower if our compensation was based on commissions. Please carefully review the Wells Fargo Advisors advisory disclosure document for a full description of our services, including fees and expenses. The minimum account size for this program is $50,000. You should review your investment objectives, risk tolerance and liquidity needs before selecting a suitable investment program.

Keep in mind that all investing involves risk including possible loss of principal. A strategy's social policy could cause it to forgo opportunities to gain exposure to certain industries, companies, sectors or regions of the economy which could cause it to underperform similar portfolios that do not have a social policy. A socially responsible investment style may shift in and out of favor.

The Top Ten Holdings list represents the largest percentage of holdings in a representative account of the style as of the date shown above and is subject to change without notice. The mention of specific securities is not a recommendation or a solicitation for any person to buy, sell or hold a particular security.
